Sports Kit volleyball (set see item 3.4)	1 each
Sports Kit variety (see item 3.4)	1 each
Water Jug (10 gallon)	3 each

3.2. Free issue items must be used to support organization functions which are intended to provide morale and recreation to all squadron/organization members.

3.3. Items cannot be used in support of fundraisers, or to generate funds for the organization.

3.4. Sport Kits:

a. Variety – Includes a badminton set, horseshoe set, Frisbee, softballs, bats, croquet set, football, soccer ball and volleyball.

b. Softball – Includes 9 gloves, 1 catcher’s mask, catcher’s glove, 5 softballs, 3 bats and 4 bases.

c. Volleyball – Includes 2 volleyballs, poles, net, and area ropes.

3.5. BBQ Grills are towable and require a vehicle with a 2” ball hitch and light hook-up.

4. RESERVATION GUIDANCE:

4.1. Personnel can reserve items by submitting a completed ODR Equipment Loan Request Letter (E-LRL), signed by their Commander, First Sergeant, or branch equivalent and submitted to the ODR Operations Manager or Director for approval.

4.2. The ODR Equipment LRL will include point of contact information, due date(s), check-out requirements, cancellation guidance and equipment care.

4.3. Reservations for free issue items can be made up to 60 days (two calendar months) in advance.

4.4. Reservations for non-free issue items can be reserved with a 1-day rental fee as a deposit at the time of the reservation. These items must be identified on the LRL.

4.5. Free issue items are for 1 DAY ONLY; normal rental fees will be applied for additional time requested/required by POC. Units will be charged for items not returned on due date.

4.6. Items are to be transported to and from the activity by the requestor; any requests for transportation and set-up labor are considered additional fees and will be charged.
